

Abstract of the Disclosure

Methods of increasing testosterone levels using selective progesterone receptor modulators (SPRMs) are provided. SPRMs may therefore be used to treat conditions associated with decreased levels of testosterone such as sexual 5 dysfunction, hypogondism, andropause, muscle wasting, and frailty. Compositions comprising SPRMs are also provided.